

BISH ENTERPRISES.
Term and Conditions of Sale, Including Limited Warranty

- 1. Scope. These Terms and Conditions of Sale apply to all orders of goods placed by Buyer and accepted by Seller for the purchase and sale of goods (“Products”), together with Seller’s final quotation, the agreed scope(s) of work, and Seller’s order acknowledgment (collectively, the “Contract”). In the event of any conflict between the various documents, the terms and conditions contained in this Agreement shall control and supersede any other inconsistent terms and conditions that may apply to the sale.

Any terms and conditions submitted by Buyer, now or in the future, and in any form (including without limitation those contained in Buyer’s purchase order, or otherwise delivered to Seller, directly or indirectly), shall not apply or be considered an amendment of this Agreement unless such terms and conditions are set forth in a written agreement that is signed by authorized representatives of both Seller and Buyer and which identifies the specific purchase order and the specific provisions of this Agreement which are intended to be amended.

- 2. Offer and Acceptance. Buyer may offer to buy Products by submitting a written purchase order to Seller describing the product, quantity, unit price, and delivery requirements. Seller may accept or reject any purchase order at Seller’s sole discretion. If and when accepted, these Terms and Conditions shall be included as material terms and conditions of the purchase order.
- 3. Payment Terms. Buyer shall pay Seller for the Products by paying all invoiced amounts in U.S. dollars, without set-off for any payment from Seller not due under this Contract, within thirty (30) days from the date of each invoice. For each calendar month, or fraction thereof, that payment is late Buyer shall pay a late payment charge computed at the rate of one and one-third percent (1.333%) per month on the overdue balance, or the maximum rate permitted by law, whichever is less. If at any time Seller reasonably determines that Buyer’s financial condition or payment history does not justify continuation of Seller’s performance, Seller shall be entitled to require full or partial payment in advance or otherwise restructure payments, request a form of payment security, suspend its performance, or terminate the Contract.
- 4. Security Interest. Seller retains a purchase money security interest in the Products until such time as the invoice for such Products has been paid in full. Seller may file a financing statement under the Uniform Commercial Code to secure its interest in the Products for which payment has not been received.
- 5. Taxes. Buyer is responsible for all sales, use, excise and similar taxes owed regarding the purchase of the Products, whether or not such tax is separately set forth on a proposal or invoice. Buyer will pay to Seller any sales, use, excise or similar tax owed by Buyer which the law requires Seller to collect from Buyer and remit. Unless Buyer provides Seller with a proper tax exemption certificate prior to the date of shipping, the price for the Products will be increased to include any sales, use, property, value added or similar tax, fee or charge that Seller is or becomes required to collect or pay in the absence of such certificate for the transaction and/or assessed for the Products. Buyer is responsible to pay (or if paid by Seller, to reimburse Seller) for any excise tax applicable for sale, use, or installation of the Products. Such excise tax is not included in Seller’s quotation and is payable before delivery of the Products if collectable by Seller. Buyer will cooperate with Seller to comply with tax filings and remittance requirements

6. Shipment

- 6.1. Packing; Delivery. Packaging and packing shall be in accordance with good commercial practice. Partial deliveries are permitted. Seller may deliver Products up to ten (10) days in advance of scheduled delivery dates. In the event Seller is unable to meet scheduled delivery dates, Seller will advise Buyer of Seller’s estimate of when delivery can be made. In the event that delivery is not made, or Seller estimates that it will not be made, within forty-five (45) days of the originally scheduled delivery date, Buyer may cancel that portion of the order that is or will be more than forty-five (45) days late by giving written notice to Seller no later than five (5) days after receipt by Buyer of written notice from Seller of the extension of the delivery beyond forty-five (45) days after initially scheduled delivery date. Upon such cancellation, Buyer shall have no further obligation to Seller with respect to the such cancellation, Buyer shall have no further obligation to Seller with respect to the cancelled portion of the order, and such cancellation shall constitute Buyer's sole remedy for delay in delivery.

- 6.2. Inspection Upon Receipt. Buyer shall inspect the Products promptly upon receipt (but in no event later than ten days after receipt) for damage, shortage, or defects. Claims of damage, shortage or defects must be provided in writing by Buyer to Seller within fifteen (15) days of Buyer's receipt of the Products.
- 6.3. Returns. No Products will be returned to Seller by Buyer without Seller's prior written agreement, and then only under the terms of any such agreement. Seller is not obligated to accept returns. Buyer shall permit Seller, or its designated representative, to inspect any Products that Buyer has rejected as nonconforming or which Buyer has identified as defective or damaged at Buyer's facility during normal business hours within thirty (30) days of the date of Buyer's written notice of nonconformance or defect.
 - 6.3.1. In the event a return is accepted, a 30% restocking fee for all orders will be assessed on all returned or canceled products. Seller will not be responsible for returning freight charges. Merchandise must be returned intact and unused, including hardware kits. Used, damaged, or marred merchandise, which cannot be resold, will not be accepted. The customer account will be credited the purchase price of the merchandise less the restocking fee and less any damages or impairments to the merchandise.
- 6.4. Storage. If any Products to be delivered under this Contract cannot be delivered to or received by Buyer when ready due to any cause attributable to Buyer, Seller may ship the Products to a storage facility. If Seller places Products into storage (i) any amounts otherwise payable to Seller upon delivery or shipment shall be due; (ii) all expenses and charges incurred by Seller related to the storage shall be payable by Buyer upon submission of Seller's invoices; and (iii) when conditions permit and upon payment of all amounts due, Seller shall make Products available to Buyer for delivery.

7. Title; Risk of Loss. Title to the Products and risk of loss shall pass to Buyer at the point and time of delivery as set forth in Section 6.1 (Packaging; Delivery).

8. Limited Warranty.

- 8.1. General Provisions. Seller warrants to Buyer that New Products will be free from defects in material and workmanship for a period of one (1) year from the date of shipment of the new Products to Buyer. The Buyer will be responsible for shipping, and all cost of labor to remove defective parts or products and install the replacement part(s) or products.
